

Developing Excellence in Practice Education

Where: Central Leeds

When: 10th October 2019

Time: 9:30 – 16:00

The Leeds and Wakefield Social Work Teaching Partnership is delighted to be hosting a developmental conference for existing Practice Educators.

Key note speakers:

- Race Matters: Practice Education – Lorraine Agu – Leeds Beckett University
- Practice Education Standards – Keri O’Riordan – BASW

You will have the opportunity to attend 2 workshops during the day and will be able to select these on the day.

Workshops will include:

- Reflective Supervision
- Supporting Students with Emotional Resilience
- Supporting Students with Additional Needs

There will be an opportunity to learn more about the Leeds and Wakefield Social Work Teaching Partnership and network with other Practice Educators from across Leeds and Wakefield.

Places are limited. Please request your place by contacting your Workforce Development Team.